Drug Identification Workshop

The Latah County Sheriff's Office offers you a chance to learn about how drugs affect the body, the mind, and your communities. The workshop is a two-hour training about the signs and symptoms of drug impairment, how drugs take their toll on lives and families, and what you can do as citizens to curtail drug use and help law enforcement detect and enforce drug offenses.

Sergeant Phil Gray of the Latah County Sheriff's Office is a Drug Recognition Expert with more than 12 years of law enforcement experience. Phil is a husband, a father, and a concerned citizen of Latah County. He is happy to share his law enforcement expertise in this area to your civic, service, or community group—free of charge.
